

Resident Expert Advisors and Leaders (REAL) Biography

Robert “Bob” Neveu

Resident Leader

Villa St. Gabriel Villa, Chelmsford (Greater Sudbury Area)

Born in Montreal, Bob’s first job was working for Cunard, the steam ship line for 2 years. He later relocated to the Greater Sudbury Area where he continues to reside in the community of Chelmsford.

Bob worked for Inco Mining company for 35 years, with 30 of those years spent working as a miner and the last 5 as a foreman. During his career, Bob was involved in government and union negotiations that paved the way for individual miners to have their own certification program, and later, for miners to become a recognized trade. Bob’s volunteer work includes a former driver for the Cancer Society and volunteering at the Legion. Bob’s favourite pastimes include golf, baseball, fishing, hunting. Bob has been married for 50 years and has 2 children of whom he is exceptionally proud. As Co-Chair of his home’s Residents’ Council, Bob recognizes the growing number of residents living with cognitive changes living in his LTC home. He remains steadfast in his commitment to speak up for those who might not be able to do so for themselves. He is committed to bringing about positive changes for others, particularly in LTC food services. As a fully bilingual member of the REAL group, Bob looks forward to engaging with resident peers across Ontario and elevating his advocacy efforts to the provincial level.
