Carolynn Snow

Born in Toronto, Carolynn Snow relocated and raised her family in Newmarket. She is a proud mother of four, and grandmother to six. When her children were school-aged, Carolynn returned to work as a bookkeeper and an office manager. Married to a busy city Councilor, Carolynn was always actively involved in her community. She particularly enjoyed being part of the Parent-Teacher Council at her children's school and acting as Secretary for her son's Scout group.

Carolynn is the President of the Residents' Council at Cedarvale Care Community in Keswick. She has been working hard with her Council to increase meeting attendance and has played a big role in enhancing communication and collaboration with the home's management team.

Carolynn Snow has served on the Ontario Association of Residents' Councils Board for the past three years and served as Secretary in 2021. Carolynn has been a committee member of OARC's Board Finance Committee and OARC's Education and Publications Committee.

As a Director with OARC, Carolynn hopes to impact change at the provincial level. Carolynn is a big advocate for increasing resources and addressing staffing shortages, as well as improving quality of life and the physical environment for people living in long-term care across the province.
