

Mary Nestor

Mary has over 35 years' experience in the field of seniors 'care and services in both government and the private sector. Throughout her career, she has held executive and senior leadership positions with varied portfolios focused on seniors 'care and services involving long-term care home regulatory oversight (compliance and enforcement), strategic and operational policy development, privacy, corporate and crisis communications, and government relations. She has also served on numerous LTC sector and government Committees, workgroups and expert panels.

Mary retired from the Ontario Public Service a few years ago and provides consulting services to the LTC home sector.

Mary is currently Chair of the Board of Directors, Ontario Association of Residents' Councils (OARC); and a Member of the Advisory Board of Sheridan Centre for Elder Research at Sheridan College.