

July 13, 2022

Calvin Morrisseau

Calvin Albert Morrisseau was born in Fort Frances, Ontario and he has lived most of his life on Couchiching First Nation. He is a proud member of the Anishinaabe Nation who has worked in the Health and Social Services field for over thirty-five years. As the former Chief Executive Officer of the Fort Frances Tribal Area Health Services, he has dedicated his life to the betterment of all people. Prior to that he spent many years working as the Director of Health for his First Nation. He is known nationally and provincially serving on a number of different health boards and committees. He is a published author who graduated from Confederation College, McMaster and Lakehead University.

Calvin is the recipient of a governor general award for his work in health and he became a Certified First Nations Health Manager with the First Nations Health Manager Association of Canada. Mr. Morrisseau believes that he can bring his wealth of knowledge and experience to the Board of Directors, especially having worked and walked in the Indigenous and Non-Indigenous world. He firmly believes that seniors and elders deserve to be empowered and respected for all their years of experience. Mr. Morrisseau is currently responsible for the long-term care portfolio for Grand Council Treaty # 3, located in the northwest region of Ontario.